Voices of Peace, from Potter, WI, founders of the VOP Gospel Fest, have been together since September 1997. The men provide the music with two guitars and two musical backgrounds. Tom, a country fan, Bud, a bluegrass fan, and Carolyn all share lead and harmony vocals. Along with their music ministry and sharing the good news of Jesus Christ with others, their stories are filled with humor, excitement and encouragement. Their music is said to be soothing, comforting, easy listening, and healing. www.voicesofpeace.net

Gospelmen from Genesee, MI began singing in 1985, a quartet with a Southern & Traditional Gospel flavor. They sing to lift up the name of Jesus Christ in song! While there are several denominations represented in this group, each member proclaims Jesus Christ as Lord! Each member is a born-again Christian who feels a definite call on his life to serve and work diligently for the cause of Christ! They just want to see lives changed, transformed and definite decisions being made to follow Christ. (MWQA). www.gospelmen.com

Gospel River Boys, from Ironton, OH are a group of men who have committed their time and talents to using Southern Gospel Music to present the gospel of Jesus Christ. Singing traditional southern gospel style of music has been full time for over nine years. From this experience comes a keen sensitivity to the needs of the moment in most any setting. This ministry has taken the group to areas throughout the United States to spread the good news of the gospel of Jesus Christ at many churches, auditoriums, and fairs. Gospel Road, a trio originating from Lincoln, NE, has been spreading the love of Christ through Southern Gospel music for the past 36 years. Gospel Road travels throughout the mid-west giving concerts that tell the message of Christ. Their smooth harmonies are a hallmark of their performing style. They regularly appear in all varieties of events - from churches to fairs and parks, concert halls and arenas. Gospel Road has one purpose - to share the love of Christ through music.

Phil & Pam Morgan. A husband and wife duo from Lee's Summit, MO. Their ministry began in 1996. In 1998 there was a rapid growth of concert appearances. Then in 2000 Pam had become a quadriplegic after a tragic car accident. Pam's faith in God and the prayers of others shocked the naysayers, when she stood up one year later and walked onto the concert stage to sing once again. It was so astounding that the world took notice. Phil's spontaneous humor and their warm playful banter back and forth will have everyone laughing. Faithful Men Quartet is from Wyoming, MN. They enjoy using the musical gifts that God has given to them. The purpose of this quartet is to bring glory to God through a variety of songs and testimonies. It is their prayer that God will use them and that churches and believers will be strengthened and blessed through the message of the songs. They sing a wide variety of Gospel, Southern Gospel, and traditional songs. www.faithfulmenonline.com

Don Shire of White Lake, WI is a traveling musician-nary. He offers his unique trumpet styling in concerts and meetings worldwide. He loves playing the trumpet to the glory of God, and loves being a part of missions worldwide. His travels over the past few years have taken him to 25 countries. He has played to the nobility and to some of the most primitive places on earth. Don coordinates short-term mission trips to places of Latin America, Europe, Africa, the Middle East, the Caribbean and the Venezuelan jungle. www.donshire.com

Joyful Noyz, based out of Galesburg, IL, and from the First Church of God, has gone through some major personal changes. The result is a renewed spirit-filled message in song and word. Their mission is to lead unbelievers to Jesus Christ through song and testimony and to encourage and strengthen faith to established believers. Rich and Nona Carroll, Chuck and Lanni Hillery. Praises to Him, Steve and Janis Miller are from Paris, MO. They consider it a privilege to share the gospel of Jesus Christ with any who do not know Him, and to those who are in need of spiritual uplifting, by what they call "Down Home Music". They like to sing the old songs with a mixed blend of "Southern Blue Grass Country Gospel". During their concerts, you will hear: 1. The Inerrant word of God proclaimed. 2. Testimonies of what Jesus has done in their lives. 3. The love of God demonstrated through songs that touch your heart. 4. Laughter. www.praisestohim.com

The Sharon Bethel Quartet of Kalona, IA, consists of four men who love to sing songs about their heavenly Father and His love to all mankind. They started singing together in 1994 and have enjoyed God's blessing on their lives and their singing as they minister in many different venues. Their singing is unique in that it is all a cappella. They sing a variety of songs including hymns and Southern Gospel. May God be praised for His anointing upon their singing! www.sharonbethelquartet.com

The Herrlinger Family is from the winding back-roads of Boyceville, WI. A home schooled family of nine, enjoy music that is melodious, joyful, and God-honoring. In 2006 God started moving in ways beyond their imagination, and began placing in their pathway opportunities to publicly share the gift of music. Their heart's desire is that they would be a blessing and encouragement to others wherever He places them and to shine as lights in a lost, dark, and dying world. Loynachan's, from Winterset, IA began in 1998, a family group that sings mostly southern gospel music. This father, mother & daughter trio is dedicated to spreading the good news of Jesus Christ as far as the Lord will lead them. Jack sings lead with a rich baritone voice, Judy sings middle harmony, and Jamie, the daughter sings high harmony. They have opened for Mark Blackwood and the Mark Trammel Trio.

The Musical Hammers Family Trio from Muscatine, Iowa began in 2002. They play a variety of music including Gospel, Traditional, Ragtime and Bluegrass but their favorites are the old hymns from generations ago. Their sound has been described as "easy listening". Not only do they share their faith through music but they also enable others to do the same. Proceeds from their CD contributions along with Songbird Dulcimers provide dulcimers to others... their "Gift of Music Mission". The Smid Family of Dunkerton, IA has two very special bonds that they share: faith in Christ and Country Gospel Music. With the help of a couple other musical friends, they offer a variety of country, bluegrass and traditional gospel music featuring two to four part harmonies as well as songs featuring the children. Through Gospel filled music, the family enjoys proclaiming God's wonderful gift of salvation. www.thesmidfamily.com

Violet Maynard is from Columbus, OH. For as long as she can remember, she always wanted to sing. For years she sang with groups all over the country, and then in 2005 was a time of change and growth in the Lord. She became a solo artist and it marked the beginning of a new chapter in her life. She had the Lord on her side and HE was opening doors that she could never open on her own. Her mission is to share the message of Jesus Christ through song and guide lost souls to Him. Shelton Bissell, from White House, TN, is the only Gospel Saxophonist in the nation to bring his unique audio & visual "Sing Along" presentation. He not only performs for the people but with the people. All the songs are chosen from the "tried and true" that have blessed generations. You will be blessed too! This is his 60th year of playing the Alto Sax and his soul will speak to your heart. www.sheltonbissell.com

Dustin & Kaila, from Osceola, IN, began singing soon after they met in 2004. God certainly joined them together for His special purposes! Married in 2008, they continue to strive to reach the lost and encourage the saved! Through powerful music and a powerful message, this Southern Gospel duet travels to churches, festivals, concert halls, nursing homes, and anywhere in between....excited about presenting the truth of God's love.
